HEAVY RAINS OF THE LAST THREE DAYS IS RESPONSIBLE FACTOR

(By Associated Press)
SEATTLE, Dec. 12.—City firemen were busy today searching the ruins of a house in west Seattle in an effort to recover the bodies of Mrs. Emma C. Andrews, and her two nephews, Jack, age 5, and Tom, age 7, believed to have lost their lives when their home was struck by a landslide and demolished last night. Joseph Moran, a night watchman living at Medina, a suburb, was instantly killed last night when his home collapsed from the impact of the landslide. PROMOTION TO MAN WHO KILLS JAIL BREAKER

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—"Lucky" Tommy O'Connor, gun man and killer was to have been led today to his death cell in the Cook county jail, there to await his hanging next Thursday morning, for the killing of a policeman, but instead O'Connor is leading the combined force of 3,000 police and deputies in a merry chase after his sensational escape from jail. Four jail guards were overpowered by O'Connor and four other prisoners yesterday, but O'Connor's reputation as a killer suffered when he failed to use a revolver which had been smuggled to him. Chief of police Fitzmorris threatened to suspend any policeman who tries to capture O'Connor alive and promises promotion to the man who brings him in dead.

Fitzmorris was bitter in his denunciation of the conditions at the jail. He charged that O'Connor was literally "shoved out" of the jail by some of the officials inside. "They gave him everything but a road map," the chief asserted. Sheriff Peters has suspended three jail guards.

PROSPECTOR MEETS DEATH NEAR ROYSTON

Saturday many of the friends of Paul Fischer, a prospector and business man of southern Nevada for many years, became alarmed on his absence from Royston from which place he left a few days before Thanksgiving saying that he would return by the 24th of November. He had gone to Goldfield for lumber to complete a partially erected house at Royston, and which blew down on the first of December during the heavy wind storm. He was last seen at Crow Springs in his Ford auto delivery car the day before Thanksgiving, which contained lumber and a card table. Not having arrived, searching parties started out Saturday, found his car two miles off the road, between Cloverdale and Royston, and followed Fischer's tracks from the car for a distance of 15 miles. His tracks showed that he had become bewildered, and finally his body was found in the hills, and it was presumed that he had been dead 12 to 14 days. The body was centless, one shoe was gone and no socks were on either feet. The points of his fingers showed that he had been digging in the sand evidently for water. It was also found where he had crawled on his stomach for some little distance.

The body was taken to Royston and an inquest was held yesterday by coroner W. T. Caddy at the town of Royston, with the following jury: E. A. Heffernan, Chris. Grant, R. B. West, E. A. McGinness, Ingvald C. Doe, and Howard Baldwin, who rendered the following verdict: "We find that the deceased's name was Paul Fischer, a native of Germany, aged 60 years, and that he came to his death on or about the 25th day of November, 1921, by exhaustion and exposure, about six miles east of Royston."

The deceased had resided in Nye county for a number of years, and for many years was engaged in the manufacture of soft drinks at Manhattan. Two years ago he operated a soft drink stand on the lower end of Main street in Tonopah.

The remains were brought to Tonopah by undertaker Cavanaugh and the funeral will take place tomorrow.

WOMEN STRIKE BREAKERS STOP OPERATIONS

PITTSBURGH, Kans., Dec. 12.—A mob of women, estimated at 2000, the wives and relatives of striking Howat coal miners, stormed mine number 17 of the Jackson-Walker company, here early today and prevented the miners employed from returning to their work.

ROCHESTER MAN SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA

It was with more than passing regret that the community learned of the death on Saturday afternoon of Sherman Crumley, old time resident of Tonopah and Goldfield, and who for the past year had been in business at Rochester.

He had not been ill a great length of time nor was it thought that his condition was serious. Word of his illness had not been received in time by his wife living in Kansas for her to reach his bedside before his demise. Death was due to pneumonia.

Upon receipt of word from Rochester that he had passed away, his two brothers, J. Grant and Newton Crumley rushed with all possible speed to Rochester to take charge of the remains.

Besides his wife and the two brothers living in Tonopah, the deceased leaves two other brothers, Simpson Crumley of Kansas and the Rev. Thomas Crumley in Arkansas, and a sister Miss Sara Crumley, of Newkirk, Oklahoma.

HELIUM GAS FOUND ONLY IN UNITED STATES

(By Associated Press)
FORT WORTH, Tex., Dec. 12.—Hope that congress will see the possibilities of helium non-explosive gas—not as a war-time measure, but for purposes of peace, was expressed by Commander Allen G. Olson, in charge of the helium plant operated near Fort Worth by the United States navy. The limitation of armament program should not influence helium production, he said, because of its peace time possibilities.

The plant here, which is one of two in the United States, was shut down at midnight November 30, pending further appropriation by congress to maintain it. The other plant, located at Petrolia, Texas, has been closed since July 1, 1921, the end of the last fiscal year.
